DATE OF CRIME: JUNE 7, 2008
CRIME LOCATION: CATHEDRAL CITY

In June 2006, members of a Cathedral City criminal street gang were hanging out in a Cathedral City park. Members of a rival gang entered the park and an argument ensued over gang graffiti (tagging). This week's co-fugitive, Jose Giron and a rival gang member were arguing over the rights to tag in a disputed area that both gangs were claiming as their "turf." Jose Giron and a rival gang member engaged in a physical altercation to settle the dispute. After losing the fight, Jose Giron went to a truck and pulled out a handgun. Jose Giron fatally shot the rival gang member who had just defeated him in a the fight. After shooting the rival gang member, Jose Giron and his co-fugitive brother Angel Giron proceeded to physically beat the shooting victim while he lay on the ground. Both Jose and Angel fled the scene and have avoided apprehension. The Giron brothers were originally named to the Riverside County's Most Wanted Fugitive list on February 28, 2008.
