

Policing Indian Lands Video

Female voice: “When you drive onto that reservation it’s not like driving into another city. You’re actually driving into a whole different culture and you need to respect that”.

Male voice: “For the officers around the state that are dealing with Native peoples, be a good listener, hear what they are saying, think before you speak, and accept where they came from”.

2nd Male voice: “I have always encouraged communications and active participations of building relations between the communities, so that when something critical does happen you have established relationships and you can both address the issues rapidly”.

End: Tribal music and male voice chanting.
